Negar Karimian

It's a short news, another crime by Ali

Hamburg , 13.03.2024, 20:22 Time

USPA NEWS - Iranian girls are severely oppressed by the Islamic Republic led by a dangerous creature who is more terrorist than a terrorist, more savage than a savage, crazier than a lunatic, more viral than a virus, and more murderous than a murderer (this creature is only named Ali Khamenei).

He kills young girls and boys, children, women, and men, executes them. All the individuals he has employed harass people on the streets of Iran. They freely use weapons, shoot recklessly, kill people freely, and the global community remains silent easily.

Negar Karimian; Reason for being killed? Not wearing Islamic hijab.
Type of murder: Direct shooting by Khamenei's regime forces or killer police, the best name for which is the killer police of the Khamenei regime.

Negar Karimian, on a day in the city of Brojen in Iran, without any reason or prior warning, armed men of the Khamenei regime or killer police, the best name for which can be attributed to the police of the Khamenei regime, suddenly shoot her and Negar loses her life.

The dictatorial regime of Iran hides the news with shame and fear of igniting the society and tries to declare ignorance.
The Iranian government and Ali Khamenei are always unaware of the crimes they commit!
This pain is unbearable...
Because they earnestly kill all humans and then claim ignorance!

It seems that repetitive scenarios are not enough?

Kian Peyr Felk, a 9-year-old child, was killed during the protests against the unjust killing of Mahsa Amini, even though neither Kian nor his family had participated in the protests. He was shot by Iranian police while in a car.
Mona Naqibi, a 3-year-old child who was in a car, was shot and killed while in her mother's arms.

Nika Shakeri, a 16-year-old girl, was raped by a group and then killed. The Iranian regime under Khamenei threw her lifeless body from the top of a building.

Sarina Ismailzadeh, a 16-year-old girl who participated in the protests, was shot and killed by a direct bullet.
Isra Panahi, a 16 year-old girl returning from school, never made it home and was shot dead.
Momen Zand Karimi, a 14-year-old boy playing in the street, was shot and killed by regime gunmen under Khamenei's leadership with around 90 rubber bullets.

The number of casualties since the start of the protests following Mahsa Amini's death in Iran, which began on October 25, 2022, exceeds 700. This number is merely a fraction; 700 are the ones whose names we have managed to document, mostly due to having family or friends outside Iran who could report how they were killed by the Islamic Republic.

We must always remember that in Iran, there is no reliable news, no freedom-seeking journalists are free, and they end up in Iranian prisons. It should be noted that no international freedom network operates in Iran, and internet access is severely restricted, to the extent that one might say there is no internet in Iran. Due to extensive filtering, internet speed is so slow that people cannot communicate well with the outside world. Iranians should not be forgotten.

Iranians these days feel very alone.

In reality, the people of Iran are imprisoned in a large prison under the Islamic Republic and the insane leadership of Ali Khamenei.

We must be aware that there is a big difference between the people of Iran and the Iranian regime.

Despite the repression, executions, and the enmity of Khamenei's forces, the Iranian people have bravely stood up against this insane regime. But who has failed that the Islamic Republic is still in power when 98% of the Iranian people do not want them?

It's better not to answer this question, so you can think for yourself how a regime as unworthy and foolish, led by a madman named Khamenei, remains in power in a country rich in oil resources, gas, gold, fertile soil, and a rich history, culture, and civilization.
Why aren't they sanctioned? Why do the embassies and consulates of the Iranian regime, known for human rights abuses, still operate?

Why does the dirty NIAC group, under Khamenei's support, operate freely in America and try to convince everyone that the situation in Iran is excellent?

Why aren't all these lies and crimes being exposed?
It's not enough?

And millions other why's …….
